

Worksheet-II

Fiction 6: Expert Detectives – Part II

Module 2/2

Q1. Read the following extract and answer the following in very short.

1) “At least he has one friend, the one who meets him on Sundays...”

“A brilliant thought occurred to me just then. That Man must be Mr Nath’s accomplice in crime, I said’. “Maybe he keeps all the loot and comes now and then to give part of it to his partner, Mr Math, for expenses. ” (Page no 91)

- i) Who is the speaker in the above lines excluding very first line?
- ii) Who is the man referred to here in the above lines?
- iii) Who did have at least a friend?
- iv) What is mean by “accomplice”?

2) “I don’t care,” said Nishad stubbornly, I like him and I’m going to try and be his friend”.

“Friends with a crook! Ha! You’re crazy, Seven, “I said. “The cops will take you to jail with him.....” (Page no – 92)

- i) Who did like whom in the above lines?
- ii) According to the relevant speaker, why did the cops will take the person to jail?
- iii) What is the tone of the speaker in the line ‘friends with a crook!?’
- iv) What is mean by “stubbornly”?

Q2. Answer the following questions in short. (30-40 words)

- a) What was Nishad's firm decision in the end of the story?
- b) According to Maya, why did Mr Nath give generous tips of money to Ramesh?
- c) Why did Maya think Mr Nath was polite to them?

Q.3 Fill in the following blanks the typical use of the words helper, accomplice, companion, and partner.

- a) The officer was attacked by Brancato's
- b) Belle, our dog, my other was very faithful.
- c) They are in the real estate business.
- d) I thought he would be my in my work.

Q4. (A) A car driver hit an old woman near a hotel in a city and drove away. You happened to eyewitness the accident. Write an imaginary and convincing dialogue between the eyewitness (you) and the police inspector.

OR

(B) Suppose, you are a budding writer. You didn't like the ending of the story "Expert Detectives". Modify or add one or two paragraphs to end the story "Expert Detectives".

My hints: Maya and Nishad get separated with their own views -Nishad goes to Mr Nath for making friendship- he sees police around his Shanker house –comes back to Maya to report the things – Maya feels very excited to know the trapping of Mr Nath as a crook- both Maya and Nishad listen their mother's call to her fellow doctor – shocked to listen that Mr Nath was not a patient but renowned expert detective in CBI-appointed to solve the mystery of Millions of rupees stashed away in Shanker house.

Note: Students are free to cook their own modifications.

=====

- Pramod Bhivsan Nikalje. (TGT- English)
AECS 2 – Tarapur
Emp Id - 3126