

Worksheet Story Writing Module 1 of 2

1. The following is the outline of a short story. Read it and develop it into a story in not more than 150 to 200 words:

God promises to visit disciple's house..... disciple cleans her house and waits for God.....a poor old lady knocks on her door..... disciple ignores her..... shoos her away next a beggar comes.... She shoos him away too.....a child knock on the door and she becomes very impatient.....is unhappy that God hadn't kept his word....dreams of God that night ...God tells her he had visited her thrice the previous day but she had shoosed him away....lady very disappointed. (Provide a suitable title to the story)

2. With the help of the given outline write a story. Give it a suitable title.
(Word limit for the story is 150 to 200 words)

Old peasant.... lazy sons.....peasant on death bed...called sons.....informed about treasure in the fields.....to find must dig entire land....old peasant died
..... sons dug every bit of the land.....no treasure..... corn excellent crop....
...sons learnt lesson...what?

3. With the help of the given outline write a story. Give it a suitable title.
(Word limit for the story is 150 to 200 words):

Elderly carpenter wants to retire ... employer asks him to build one last house ...
carpenter does a poor job ... he thinks he no longer needs to impress the employer or the customer ... work is over ... employer inspects the house and hands over the key to the carpenter saying that it is his gift for the carpenter ... carpenter shocked ... he regrets not having done a good job.
