

The Little Girl

Module-4/4

Worksheet

Synonyms & Antonyms of glad

Experiencing pleasure, satisfaction, or delight

Eg.: The man was glad to see his old college buddies again, after so long an absence.

Synonyms for glad:-

blissful, delighted, gratified, happy, joyful, joyous, pleased, satisfied, tickled

1. Write a sentence of your own using glad:

Verbs of Reporting:

Make a new sentence with the same meaning using the reporting verb given in brackets.

- 1) "You shouldn't go into the water," said the coast guard. (advise against)

Answer: The coast guard advised me against going into the water.

- 2) "I'll go to France on holiday," said John. (decide, using infinitive)

- 3) "I think you should go to the dentist," Julie said to Tom. (advise, using infinitive)

- 4) "Watch out for the weak bridge," he said. (warn, using 'about')

- 5) "You should apply for the job," said Jack to Stella. (encourage)

- 6) "The class will start later on Tuesdays," said the teacher to us. (explain)

7) "It's a great idea to go to the beach," said Maria. (recommend)

8) "Don't cross the road there," she said to the children. (warn)

9) "I'll make the coffee!" said David. (insist)

10) "I'll study really hard for the exam," said Luke. (promise)
