

Work sheet
Geography -2

Land, soil, water, Natural and wild life Resources. (Module-1)

Answer the following

1)What are the uses of land?

A) Land is used for different purposes like agriculture, forestry, mining building houses, roads and setting up of industry.

2)Distinguish between private land and community land.

A) Private land is owned and operated by individuals.

Community land is owned by the community

3)What are the major threats to the environment because of the expansion of agriculture and construction activities?

A) Landslides, soil erosion, desertification are the major threats to the environment

Try yourself

1)Write any four methods of conservation of land.

2)What are landslides? Write the reasons of landslides?

3)Why is land considered an important resource?

4)Name the determinants of land use pattern.

5) Write the mitigation techniques of landslides.

Fill in the blanks

1)Community land is also known as-----

2)-----are simply defined as the mass movement of rock, debris or earth down a slope.

3)Land covers only----- percent of the total area of the earth's surface.