

Iswaran, the Storyteller by

R. K. LAXMAN

Module -3

ISWARAN PLANTS IDEAS IN MAHENDRA'S MIND!!

Iswaran said that the factory area where they lived had earlier been a burial ground.

On his very first day here, he had seen a human skull lying around.

A SURREAL APPARITION!!

On a full moon night, he saw the ugly ghost of a woman who had a shrunken face, matted hair and held an unborn baby in its arms.

MAHENDRA'S WOES BEGIN!!

Mahendra woke up from his sleep as he thought he heard someone crying. He saw the white moonlight and a dark shadow holding a bundle in its arms. As he saw the ghost he started sweating, breathing heavily.

MAHENDRA SUCCUMBS TO THE PHANTOMS OF HIS MIND!!

Mahendra was frightened; he left in a hurry and resigned from the job. He could not live at a haunted place even for a single day!!

